1 Regulatory Compliance

Federal Communications Commission Notice

Part 15 of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Rules and Regulations has established Radio Frequency (RF) emission limits to provide an interference-free radio frequency spectrum. Many electronic devices, including computers, generate RF energy incidental to their intended function and are, therefore, covered by these rules. These rules place computers and related peripheral devices into two classes, A and B, depending upon their intended installation. Class A devices are those that may reasonably be expected to be installed in a business or commercial environment. Class B devices are those that may reasonably be expected to be installed in a residential environment, such as personal computers. The FCC requires devices in both classes to bear a label indicating the interference potential of the device as well as additional operating instructions for the user.

The rating label on the device shows which class (A or B) the equipment falls into. Class B devices have an FCC logo or FCC ID on the label. Class A devices do not have an FCC logo or FCC ID on the label. Once the class of the device is determined, refer to the following corresponding statement.

Class A Equipment

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class A digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference when the equipment is operated in a commercial environment. This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. Operation of this equipment in a residential area is likely to cause harmful interference, in which case the user will be required to correct the interference at personal expense.

Class B Equipment

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit that is different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio or television technician for help.

Declaration of Conformity for Products Marked With the FCC Logo, United States Only

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

For questions regarding this FCC declaration, contact us by mail or telephone:

Dot Hill Systems Corp.
1351 S. Sunset Street
Longmont, CO 80501
303-845-3200

To identify this product, refer to the part, Regulatory Model Number, or product number found on the product.

Modifications

The FCC requires the user to be notified that any changes or modifications made to this device that are not expressly approved by Dot Hill Systems Corp. may void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

Cables

Connections to this device must be made with shielded cables with metallic RFI/EMI connector hoods in order to maintain compliance with FCC Rules and Regulations.

Regulatory Compliance Identification Numbers

For the purpose of regulatory compliance certifications and identification, your product has been assigned a unique Regulatory Model Number. The RMN can be found on the product nameplate label, along with all required approval markings and information. When requesting compliance information for this product, always refer to this RMN. The Regulatory Model Number should not be confused with the marketing name or model number of the product.

Regulatory Compliance Label Location

The Regulatory Compliance label is located on top of the chassis.

Laser Device

All systems equipped with a laser device comply with safety standards, including International Electrotechnical Commission IEC 60825-1. With specific regard to the laser, the equipment complies with laser product performance standards set by government agencies as a Class 1 laser product. The product does not emit hazardous light.

Laser Safety Warning

- ⚠ WARNING! To reduce the risk of exposure to hazardous radiation:
- Do not view the laser emission directly with optical instruments.
 - Do not try to open the laser device enclosure. There are no user-serviceable components inside.
 - Do not operate controls, make adjustments, or perform procedures to the laser device other than those specified herein.
 - Allow only authorized service technicians to repair the laser device.

Certification and Classification Information

This product might contain a laser internal to a fiber optic (FO) transceiver for connection to a Fibre Channel communications port.

In the USA, the FO transceiver is certified as a Class 1 laser product conforming to the requirements contained in the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) regulation 21 CFR, Subchapter J. A label on the FO transceiver housing indicates the certification.

Outside the USA, the FO transceiver is certified as a Class 1 laser product conforming to the requirements contained in IEC 60825-1 and EN 60825-1.

Laser Product Label

An optional label or its equivalent might be located on the surface of a supplied laser device.

This optional label indicates that the product is classified as a CLASS 1 LASER PRODUCT. This label may appear on a laser device installed in your product.

International Notices and Statements

Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, July 2010

Section 1502

As one of the world's leading producers of high-performance RAID (redundant array of independent disks) storage products for the Open Systems computing environment, we work with our vendors to determine if their supplies of conflict minerals (tin, tungsten, tantalum and gold – 3TG) come from Conflict Regions.

Dot Hill has manufactured and contracted to manufacture products to which 3TG are necessary to the functionality or production of such products. Dot Hill communicates its policy regarding conflict minerals to all suppliers. If a supplier is found to be purchasing materials which directly or indirectly finances or benefits armed groups in the Democratic Republic of Congo or adjoining countries (DRC), Dot Hill will take actions, up to and including Dot Hill discontinuing doing business with that supplier.

This product is Class A.

In residential environments, the product may cause radio interference, and in such a situation, the user may be required to take adequate measures.

2 Safety and Disposal Instructions

Safety precautions

For your protection, observe the following safety precautions when setting up your equipment:

- Follow all cautions and instructions marked on the equipment.
- Install the system in accordance with the local safety codes and regulations at the facility site. Follow all cautions and instructions marked on the equipment.
- Two people are needed to lift and move enclosures. Use care to avoid injury. An enclosure with all drives installed can weigh 206 pounds (93.44 kilograms).
- Do not operate Dot Hill products without the covers in place. Failure to take this precaution might result in personal injury and system damage.
- Do not block or cover the openings of your Dot Hill product. Never place it near a radiator or heat register. Failure to follow these guidelines can cause overheating and affect the reliability of your product.
- Dot Hill products are designed to work with power systems having a grounded neutral (grounded return for DC-powered products). To reduce the risk of electric shock, do not plug these products into any other type of power system. Contact your facilities manager or a qualified electrician if you are not sure what type of power is supplied to your building.
- The DC power supplies are ITE Listed Accessories, and therefore allow for conversion from AC powered systems to DC powered systems in the field. These accessories are applicable to AssuredSAN 2U12/2U24 enclosures (compliance model DBB) and high-density AssuredSAN 4U56 enclosures (compliance model DBU).
- Install Surge Protective Devices (SPDs) at the AC inputs of the network equipment.
- Ensure that the voltage and frequency of your power source match the voltage and frequency inscribed on the equipment's electrical rating label.
- Not all power cords have the same current ratings. Household extension cords do not have overload protection and are not meant for use with computer systems. Do not use household extension cords with your Dot Hill product.
- Never push objects of any kind through openings in the equipment. Dangerous voltages might be present. Conductive foreign objects could produce a short circuit that could cause fire, electric shock, or damage to your equipment.
- Do not make mechanical or electrical modifications to the product. The vendor is not responsible for the safety or regulatory compliance of a modified product.
- Batteries might explode if mishandled or incorrectly replaced. See the service manual for proper handling and replacement instructions. Do not dispose of the battery in fire. Do not disassemble it or attempt to recharge it.
- For products with a Standby power switch, the power cord serves as the primary disconnect device for the system. Be sure to plug the power cord into a grounded power outlet that is nearby the system and is readily accessible. Do not connect the power cord when the power supply has been removed from the system chassis.

This product complies with regulatory requirements for safety and EMC as documented in the Dot Hill Systems online document repository of hardware documentation at:

Sicherheitsvorkehrungen

Treffen Sie zu Ihrem eigenen Schutz bei der Installation des Geräts die folgenden Sicherheitsvorkehrungen:

- Beachten Sie alle auf den Geräten angebrachten Warnhinweise und Anweisungen.
- Stellen Sie sicher, dass Spannung und Frequenz der Stromversorgung den Nennleistungen auf dem am Gerät angebrachten Etikett entsprechen.
- Führen Sie niemals Fremdoobjekte in Öffnungen am Gerät ein. Es können gefährliche Spannungen anliegen. Leitfähige Fremdoobjekte können einen Kurzschluss verursachen, der einen Brand, Stromschlag oder Geräteschaden herbeiführen kann.
- Nehmen Sie keine elektrischen oder mechanischen Änderungen an den Geräten vor. Dot Hill Systems ist für die Einhaltung der Sicherheitsvorschriften von modifizierten Dot Hill Produkten nicht haftbar.
- Geräteöffnungen Ihres Dot Hill-Produkts dürfen nicht blockiert oder abgedeckt werden. Dot Hill Geräte sollten niemals in der Nähe von Heizkörpern oder Heißluftklappen aufgestellt werden. Die Nichtbeachtung dieser Richtlinien kann Überhitzung verursachen und die Zuverlässigkeit Ihres Geräts beeinträchtigen.
- Dot Hill Geräte sind für Stromversorgungssysteme mit einem geerdeten neutralen Leiter ausgelegt (geerdeter Rückleiter bei gleichstrombetriebenen Geräten). Um die Gefahr von Stromschlägen zu vermeiden, schließen Sie das Gerät niemals an andere Stromversorgungssysteme an. Wenden Sie sich an den zuständigen Gebäudeverwalter oder an einen qualifizierten Elektriker, wenn Sie nicht sicher wissen, an welche Art von Stromversorgungssystem Ihr Gebäude angeschlossen ist.
- Nicht alle Netzkabel verfügen über die gleichen Strom-Nennwerte. Herkömmliche, im Haushalt verwendete Verlängerungskabel besitzen keinen Überlastschutz und sind daher für Computersysteme nicht geeignet. Verwenden Sie bei Ihrem Dot Hill Produkt keine Haushalts-Verlängerungskabel.
- Batterien können bei unsachgemäßer Handhabung oder unsachgemäßem Austausch explodieren. Anweisungen zur ordnungsgemäßen Handhabung und zum Austausch finden Sie im Service-Handbuch. Werfen Sie die Batterien nicht ins Feuer. Versuchen Sie auf keinen Fall, die Batterie auszubauen oder wiederaufzuladen.
- Dot Hill Geräte dürfen nicht ohne Abdeckungen in Betrieb genommen werden. Nichtbeachtung dieses Warnhinweises kann Verletzungen oder Geräteschaden zur Folge haben.
- Bei Produkten mit Standby-Netzschalter dient das Netzkabel zum Abschalten des Systems. Stellen Sie sicher, dass das Stromkabel an eine geerdete Steckdose in der Nähe des Systems mit unbehindertem Zugang angeschlossen ist. Schließen Sie das Stromkabel nicht an, wenn die Stromversorgung vom Systemchassis entfernt wurde.

Dieses Produkt entspricht den EMC- und Sicherheitsanforderungen wie in den Online-Dokument-Datenbanken für Hardware von Dot Hill Systems dargelegt:

Rack-mount Safety Instructions

NOTE: Also see the related rack-mount bracket kit instructions provided with your enclosure product.

Elevated Operating Ambient

If installed in a closed or multi-unit rack assembly, the operating ambient temperature of the rack environment may be greater than room ambient. Therefore, consider installing the equipment in an environment compatible with the maximum ambient temperature (TMA) specified by the manufacturer.

Reduced Air Flow

When installing the equipment in a rack, ensure that the amount of air flow required for safe operation of the equipment is not compromised.

Mechanical Loading

When mounting the equipment in the rack, be careful that a hazardous condition is not achieved due to uneven mechanical loading.

Circuit Overloading

Consider the connection of the equipment to the supply circuit and the effect that overloading of the circuits might have on overcurrent protection and supply wiring. Appropriate consideration of equipment nameplate ratings should be used when addressing this concern.

Reliable Grounding

Maintain reliable grounding of rack-mounted equipment. Give particular attention to supply connections other than direct connections to the branch circuit (e.g., use of power strings). For more information on proper grounding, see Grounding Methods on page 16.

Battery Replacement Notice

This device might be equipped with a lithium manganese dioxide, a vanadium pentoxide, or an alkaline internal battery or battery pack. There is a danger of explosion and risk of personal injury if the battery is incorrectly replaced or mistreated. Replacement is to be done by an authorized service provider using the spare part designated for this product. For more information about battery replacement or proper disposal, contact an authorized reseller or authorized service provider.

⚠ WARNING! Your computer contains an internal lithium manganese dioxide, a vanadium pentoxide, or an alkaline battery pack. There is risk of fire and burns if the battery pack is not properly handled. To reduce the risk of personal injury:

- Do not attempt to recharge the battery.
- Do not expose to temperatures higher than 60°C.
- Do not disassemble, crush, puncture, short external contacts, or dispose of in fire or water.
- Replace only with the spare part designated for this product.

Batteries, battery packs, and accumulators should not be disposed of together with the general household waste. To forward them to recycling or proper disposal, please use the public collection system or return them to an authorized reseller.

For more information about battery replacement or proper disposal, contact an authorized reseller or service provider.

California Perchlorate Material Notice

This product may contain a coin cell battery which requires special handling when recycled or disposed of in the State of California.

Perchlorate material special handling may apply - see <http://www.dtsc.ca.gov/hazardouswaste/perchlorate>

Taiwan Battery Recycling Notice

The Taiwan EPA requires dry battery manufacturing or importing firms in accordance with Article 15 of the Waste Disposal Act to indicate the recovery marks on the batteries used in sales, giveaway or promotion. Contact a qualified Taiwanese recycler for proper battery disposal.

Power Cords

The power cord set must meet the requirements for use in the country where the product was purchased. If the product is to be used in another country, purchase a power cord that is approved for use in that country.

The power cord must be rated for the product and for the voltage and current marked on the product electrical ratings label. The voltage and current rating of the cord should be greater than the voltage and current rating marked on the product. In addition, the diameter of the wire must be a minimum of 1.00 mm² or 18 AWG, and the length of the cord must be between 1.8 m (6 ft) and 3.6 m (12 ft). If you have questions about the type of power cord to use, contact an authorized service provider.

NOTE: Route power cords so that they will not be walked on and cannot be pinched by items placed upon or against them. Pay particular attention to the plug, electrical outlet, and the point where the cords exit from the product.

NOTE: For units with multiple power sources, all power cords must be disconnected before servicing the unit.

Japanese Power Cord Notice

製品には、同梱された電源コードをお使い下さい。
同梱された電源コードは、他の製品では使用出来ません。

Electrostatic Discharge

To prevent damage to the system, be aware of the precautions you need to follow when setting up the system or handling parts. A discharge of static electricity from a finger or other conductor may damage system boards or other static-sensitive devices. This type of damage may cause a catastrophic failure or latent defect that reduces the life expectancy of the device.

Preventing Electrostatic Damage

To prevent electrostatic damage, observe the following precautions:

- Avoid hand contact by transporting and storing products in static-safe containers.
- Keep electrostatic-sensitive parts in their containers until they arrive at static-free workstations.

- Place parts in a static-protected area before removing them from their containers.
- Avoid touching pins, leads, or circuitry.
- Always be properly grounded when touching a static-sensitive component or assembly, see Grounding Methods on page 16.

Grounding Methods

There are several methods for grounding. Use one or more of the following methods when handling or installing electrostatic-sensitive parts:

- Use a wrist strap connected by a ground cord to a grounded workstation or computer chassis. Wrist straps are flexible straps with a minimum of 1 megohm (± 10 percent) resistance in the ground cords. To provide proper ground, wear the strap snug against the skin.
- Use heel straps, toe straps, or boot straps at standing workstations. Wear the straps on both feet when standing on conductive floors or dissipating floor mats.
- Use conductive field service tools.
- Use a portable field service kit with a folding static-dissipating work mat.

If you do not have any of the suggested equipment for proper grounding, have an authorized reseller install the part.

NOTE: For more information on static electricity, or assistance with product installation, contact your authorized reseller.

Készülékek magánháztartásban történő selejtezése az Európai Unió területén

A készüléken, illetve a készülék csomagolásán látható azonos szimbólum annak jelzésére szolgál, hogy a készülék a selejtezés során az egyéb háztartási hulladéktól eltérő módon kezelendő. A vásárló a hulladékká vált készüléket köteles a kijelölt gyűjtőhelyre szállítani az elektromos és elektronikai készülékek újrahasznosítása céljából. A hulladékká vált készülékek selejtezés kori begyűjtése és újrahasznosítása hozzájárul a természeti erőforrások megőrzéséhez, valamint biztosítja a selejtezett termékek környezetre és emberi egészségre nézve biztonságos feldolgozását. A begyűjtés pontos helyéről bővebb tájékoztatást a lakhelye szerint illetékes önkormányzattól, az illetékes személtakarító vállalattól, illetve a terméket elárusító helyen kaphat.

Bortskaffande av avfallsprodukter från användare i privathushåll inom Europeiska Unionen

Om den här symbolen visas på produkten eller förpackningen betyder det att produkten inte får slängas på samma ställe som hushållssopor. I stället är det ditt ansvar att bortskaffa avfallet genom att överlämna det till ett uppsamlingsställe avsett för återvinning av avfall från elektriska och elektroniska produkter. Separat insamling och återvinning av avfallet hjälper till att spara på våra naturresurser och gör att avfallet återvinns på ett sätt som skyddar människors hälsa och miljön. Kontakta ditt lokala kommunkontor, din närmsta återvinningsstation för hushållsavfall eller affären där du köpte produkten för att få mer information om var du kan lämna ditt avfall för återvinning.
