2. Ownership. The Software, together with all intellectual property rights embodied therein, is owned by Maxtor and/or its third-party suppliers and the Software is protected by United States copyright laws and international treaties. Your license confers no title or ownership in the Software. Maxtor’s third-party suppliers may protect their rights in the event of any violation of this License.

3. Copies. You may make one copy of the Software for backup or archival purposes, or when copying is an essential step in the authorized Use of the Software. You must reproduce all copyright notices in the original Software on all copies. You may not copy the Software onto any bulletin board or similar system, nor may you copy the user documentation provided with the Software except for your own authorized use.

4. Restrictions on Use. The Software contains copyrighted material, trade secrets, and other proprietary material of Maxtor and its suppliers. 6. Third Party Software. The media containing the Software includes third party software ("Third Party Software") which requires that you enter into a separate license agreement with the publisher of such software in conjunction with your original installation. You understand that your use of the Third Party Software is governed by the terms of that end user license agreement and not by this License, and you agree to abide by that third party license agreement.

7. Termination. Maxtor may terminate your license upon notice of failure to comply with any of the terms of this License. Upon termination, you must immediately destroy the Software, together with all copies thereof. If the damaged or defective media is returned to Maxtor (postage prepaid within ninety (90) days from the date of delivery of the Software to you), Maxtor will provide you with a replacement copy of the Software. This is the entire and exclusive remedy in the event of breach of this warranty.
